PART II - CONSULTATION, REPRESENTATION AND DISPUTES RESOLUTION

- 7.1. This term applies if the Company:
- (a) has made a definite decision to introduce a major change to production, program, organisation, structure or technology in relation to its enterprise that is likely to have a significant effect on the Employees; or
- 7.2. In this term, a major change is likely to have a significant effect on Employees if it results in:

- 9.3. In the event an Employee seeks representation by an Employee Representative of their choice, their Employee Representative will be allowed necessary time during working hours, subject to authority from the Representative's relevant supervisor, to submit to the Company matters affecting the Employee/s. - (c) If the matter is not resolved the effected Employee/s and the Company will arrange further discussions involving senior Company management and include the Representative of the affected Employee's choice, where requested.
- (d) If the matter still cannot be resolved, the Employee, the chosen Representative, or the Company may refer the matter to FWC for final resolution of the matter by conciliation and/or arbitration. 13.2. If an Employee wishes to raise a health and safety issue in a workplace, that Employee must first report the issue to their direct supervisor or another management representative and/ or Health and Safety Representative. An Employee may notify the Health & Safety Representative of any safety concerns at any time. If the Company identifies a health and safety issue it may report it to the Health and Safety Manager. Nothing will prevent reporting of issues to the Regulator in the event of an immediate serious risk to an individual's health and safety.

13.3. If an issue is not resolved under clause 13 within a reasonable time, any of the parties attempting to resolve the issue may ask the Regulator to attend the work place as soon as practicable to enquire into the issue. If the Regulator issues a prohibition notice, or a HSR issues a PIN notice, an Employee who, as a result of the issue arising, does not work for any period pending its resolution but would otherwise be entitled to be paid for that period will continue to be entitled to be paid for that period, subject to them agreeing to undertake suitable alternative work as directed.

- 16.2. At any time during the Probationary Period the Employee's employment may be terminated by either the Company or the Employee in accordance with this Agreement.

17. CONTRACT OF EMPLOYMENT - CASUALS

- 17.5. Termination of all casual employment shall require eight hours' notice on either side or the payment or forfeiture of eight hours pay, as the case may be.
- 17.6. Right to Request Casual Conversion:
- (a) A person engaged by the company as a regular casual Employee may request that their employment be converted to full-time or part-time employment.

 - (e) Any request under this subclause must be in writing and provided to the employer.
 - (f) Where a regular casual Employee seeks to convert to full-time or part-time employment, the employer may agree to or refuse the request, but the request may only be refused on reasonable grounds and after there has been consultation with the Employee.
 - (g) Reasonable grounds for refusal include that:
 - i. it would require a significant adjustment to the casual Employee's hours of work in order for the Employee to be engaged as a full-time or part-time Employee in accordance with the provisions of this award – that is, the casual Employee is not truly a regular casual Employee as defined in paragraph (b);
 - ii. it is known or reasonably foreseeable that the regular casual Employee's position will cease to exist within the next 12 months;
 - iii. it is known or reasonably foreseeable that the hours of work which the regular casual Employee is required to perform will be significantly reduced in the next 12 months; or
 - iv. it is known or reasonably foreseeable that there will be a significant change in the days and/or times at which the Employee's hours of work are required to be performed in the next 12 months which cannot be accommodated within the days and/or hours during which the Employee is available to work.
 - (h) For any ground of refusal to be reasonable, it must be based on facts which are known or reasonably foreseeable.
 - (i) Where the employer refuses a regular casual Employee's request to convert, the employer must provide the casual Employee with the employer's reasons for refusal in writing within 21 days of the request being made. If the Employee does not accept the employer's refusal, this will constitute a dispute that will be dealt with under the dispute resolution procedure in clause 11. Under that procedure, the Employee or the employer may refer the matter to the Fair Work Commission if the dispute cannot be resolved at the workplace level.

- (j) Where it is agreed that a casual Employee will have their employment converted to full-time or part-time employment as provided for in this clause, the employer and Employee must discuss and record in writing:

- (m) A casual Employee must not be engaged and re-engaged (which includes a refusal to re-engage), or have their hours reduced or varied, in order to avoid any right or obligation under this clause.
- (n) Nothing in this clause obliges a regular casual Employee to convert to full-time or part-time employment, nor permits an employer to require a regular casual Employee to so convert.
- (o) Nothing in this clause requires an employer to increase the hours of a regular casual Employee seeking conversion to full-time or part-time employment.
- (p) An employer must provide a casual Employee, whether a regular casual Employee or not, with a copy of the provisions of this subclause within the first 12 months of the Employee's first engagement to perform work. In respect of casual Employees already employed as at 1 October 2018, an employer must provide such Employees with a copy of the provisions of this subclause by 1 January 2019.
- (q) A casual Employee's right to request to convert is not affected if the employer fails to comply with the notice requirements in paragraph (p).

- 18.1. In any circumstance where an Employee's work performance or conduct is unsatisfactory or unacceptable (other than as set out in clause 19.2), the Company may elect to take counselling and disciplinary action consistent with this clause.
- 18.2. This clause does not apply in circumstances during an Employee's Probationary Period, or in relation to casual Employees. Serious misconduct shall be addressed under clause 22.4 of this Agreement and not this clause.
- 18.3. The Company may apply any step in this disciplinary procedure where in the Employer's view, an Employee's conduct or performance warrants such action, or may take other action in an appropriate case.
- 18.4. Disciplinary action may be applied by the Company where day to day support or counselling has been unsuccessful, or an Employee's conduct or performance is considered serious enough to warrant disciplinary action.
- 18.5. An Employee's line manager may counsel the Employee by informing the Employee of the area(s) in which he or she is not meeting the required standard of performance or conduct expected by the Company. If the line manager considers it appropriate, the Employee will be given an opportunity to respond to the identified concern(s) and an opportunity to rectify his or her performance or conduct within a reasonable period of time.

- (b) Written Warning: A written warning may be issued at any time when an Employee's performance is unsatisfactory, or the Employee has engaged in unsatisfactory conduct and:
 - i. the Employee has received an earlier verbal warning for a related issue and has not improved his or her conduct or performance to the satisfaction of the Company;

 - iii. the nature of the Employee's performance or conduct warrants the issue of a written warning.
- (c) Final Written Warning: A final written warning may be issued at any time when an Employee's performance or conduct is unacceptable and:
 - i. the Employee has received an earlier written warning for a related issue and has not improved his or her conduct or performance to the satisfaction of the Company;

 - iii. the nature of the Employee's performance or conduct warrants the termination of his or her employment.
- (e) Alternative Disciplinary Action: Nothing in this clause prevents the Company from implementing alternative disciplinary action in addition to, or instead of, the warnings listed above. Alternative disciplinary action may include (but is not limited to) a direction to attend training or counselling, a temporary or permanent demotion, loss of supervisory responsibilities and/or withdrawal of benefits such as private use of a Company vehicle or any other lawful and reasonable direction consistent with the terms of this Agreement.

18.8. This clause shall not operate so as to exclude or modify the application of Part 3-2 (Unfair Dismissal) of the FW Act to any Employee who has completed the minimum qualifying period.

19. ABANDONMENT OF EMPLOYMENT

19.1. Employees have a responsibility to notify the Company of any absences from work.

19.2. The Company will make a genuine effort to contact an Employee who is absent without leave. If after three (3) working days an Employee remains absent without leave or notification, the Company will require the Employee to provide substantive justification for their absence. The Company reserves the right to take disciplinary action where this explanation is not satisfactory.

19.3. If an Employee has not contacted the Company after three (3) working days, the Employee may be deemed to have abandoned their employment and if so, wages shall be paid only up to the last working day.

19.4. Termination under this clause will be reviewed in circumstances where an Employee provides satisfactory evidence that she/he was prevented from attending work for legitimate reasons, within 14 days from the date of the termination.

20. STAND DOWN

20.1. The right of the Company to stand down an Employee without pay shall be in accordance with section 524 of the FW Act which includes circumstances where an Employee cannot be usefully employed because of one of the following circumstances:
