NBN START OF DAY CASE

We were ready for the hearing and the case started this week. However it was adjourned after some debate. Would members please advise us if you encounter any harassment in relation to settlement/offer acceptance. There has been no developments since – apart from the adjournment. More

FUEL COSTS AND MILEAGE ALLOWANCE

The sudden cost increases in the price of fuel has led to demands for an increased mileage allowance. Aus Post has agreed to an additional 85c/km for Retail workers travelling between Post retail outlets in their private vehicles (with a cap of 7km). More

LEE WALKINGTON - LIFE MEMBERSHIP

On Saturday 28 March, we held a ceremony in Sydney to bestow Life Membership on Lee Walkington. Lee has contributed significantly to our Branch and its former identity (ATEA) for many years. Lee was particularly involved in the asbestos matters and represented our Branch in these matters. We congratulate Lee on behalf of our members.

This Bulletin is sent to members of the CWU T&S Branch and some complimentary addresses.
