ATTENTION TZV SUPPORT MEMBERS

This week we will be sending you a special Bulletin which will update progress in the EBA dispute. If you have not received it by COB Wednesday, please contact our office on office@cwu.asn.au. There may be several reasons if you have not received the email. They include: Our records do not show you as a Support staff member (cf. Ops member). Or it is in the spam or junk folder. Or it is blocked by TZV.

TZV SUPPORT DISPUTE – SPECIAL NOTE

We have created a special web page to hold all links and information re the dispute. It may be updated during each week and between bulletins. See the TZV Support EBA Central on our web site for the latest developments and the history.

TZV SUPPORT DISPUTE

CWU has a subcommittee considering all actions associated with the dispute. At times we will hold a general meeting on Zoom to cover important updates and seek your input. We will this week file an application with the FWC seeking orders. More

TZV SUPPORT – WHAT TO DO THIS WEEK

- Get support. Ask your fellow workers to join you by joining the Union. And review the following resources:
- Visit and bookmark our CWU TZV Support EBA Central web site
- Email office@cwu.asn.au confirming your full name and current address asap if it has changed.

OTHER NEWS ROUNDUP

While we are heavily involved in TZV, we have other negotiations under way without significant developments. This includes TPG and BAI EBA negotiations. We intend to file a claim for correct payment when an RDO falls on a public holiday.

SUPER UNDER ATTACK ON ANOTHER FRONT

Recently, we emailed you after Pauline Hanson said our super system was 'broken' and voiced her support for reducing our 12% super guarantee. Now, only 3 weeks later, Pauline and One Nation have announced their plan. More

UNIONS NSW – UNPAID OVERTIME SURVEY

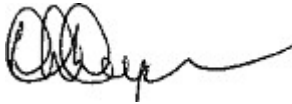

For too many Australian workers, 11 weeks are being swallowed up by unpaid overtime. 88% of workers are regularly working beyond their paid hours Working for Free Join the Campaign Working for free should never be the price of keeping your job.. More

This Bulletin is sent to members of the CWU T&S Branch and some complimentary addresses.
